Say It Cuts Public Off from Institution.

$2,750,000 RECEIVED; NEW TRIPS PLANNED

Survey of Andes and Explorations Into Paraguay and China To Be Made.

At the forty-seventh annual meeting of the trustees of the American Muum of Natural History last evening ent Henry Fairfield Osborn ad southeast wing and court building was ch needed, he said, and that plans CLOISONNE LIONS had been prepared.

In this building will be housed the large collections of ocean life, includng the collection of whales presented or the late George S. Bowdoin. It will so contain temporarily the collectons of animal life on the Congo tions of animal life on the Congo gethered by Lang and Chapin and ex-hibits of the vertebrate life history of orth America.

During the last year the museum has manaka & Co. attracted a large throng on the price of the day, $3,800, paid by E. I. 0,000 brought to this country.

En route you can visit the Prohibitionist Leaves District Grand Canyon of Arizona

MUSEUM WANTS

RESERVOIR TO GO

of deceased members enrolled were:
Darius Ogden Mills, William K. Vanderbilt, Mrs. Robert L. Stuart and Percy R. Pyne, 1st, benefactors:
Charles S. Filford, Oswald Ottendorfer, Cornelius Vanderbilt, 1st, James M. Constable and H. O. Havemeyer, associate founders, and Renjamin P. Davis, William R. Sands, William E. Dodge, 2d, Hugh Auchincloss, Henry Iden and Mrs. Arthur T. Fiske, associate benefactors.

Henry Fairfield Osborn, Archer Huntington, Cabot Ward, Ogden Mills, Thomas De Witt Cuyler, George W. Wickersham, Adrian Iselin, jr., John B. Trever, Felix M. Warburg, R. Fulton Cutting, Henry C. Frick and Walter S.

Byrne, W. Berri and W. C. Kellogg.

(Frem a Staff Correspondent of The Tribune.) Albany, Feb. 7. James F. Byrne.

at Sale of Yamanaka Collection of Art.

YALE JUNIOR PROM

OPENS GAY WEEK

STATE REGENTS SELECTED

He and Mayor Urge National Preparedness-Guests Get Legislative Conferences Agree on J. F. Potato Souvenirs.

New York lawyer, was selected by the For one evening the drummera for conference of Republican Senators ere to night as a member of the State got their grips and samples, and with Board of Regents. He defeated Will- their wives, sisters and sweethearts iam Bondy, also of New York, by a vote watching them from the festooned balof 18 to 13. In the Assembly caucus conies of the grand ballroom they dined Byrne again won over Bondy by a vote last night at the Hotel Astor.

of 79 to 19. Byrne is a Democrat. William Berri, of Brooklyn, and packed its capacity. Hundreds of Walter G. Kellogg, of Ogdensburg, were women lined the balconies and leaned unanimously selected for the Board of over, not unlike ladies, on Cordovan unanimously for the three men select. Justice Samuel Seabury and Judge 1848. He is owner of "The Brooklyn Western Travellers Association began Standard-Union," a number of trade last night the lobbies of the hotel were lions, on pedestals, brought the top flags hanging from the ceiling for a Fei-ts'ul tripod censer, in mottled for a pair of jade magnolia trees, in diners.

COMMAND $3,800

"Whitman!" cried the din-

when the light of events I results the man thrown when the matrimony, locked them and thrown greater emphasis on naval and military affairs. I am heart and soul for preparedness, for passions have been ning of the photo-play engagement has Cit loosed that will threaten for years to which brought her into comradeship handits. ome. Yet, admitting the great need with Mr. Tellegen.
or preparedness, I do not feel that our Undoubtedly Mi present lack of it calls for the bysteria wise woman she

MISS FARRAR AND HER FIANCE.

GERALDINE FARRAR VILLA OUTWITS ALL PURSUERS TO BE BRIDE TO-DAY

Quiet Wedding-Honeymoon Next Summer.

A party of feminine guests attended Keith's Theatre this afternoon and a grand ball in honor of the visiting delegates was given this evening at the Hotel Somerset.

NAVAJO UPRISING FEARED IN AR

Diva and Lou-Tellegen to Have Carranza Officials and Army Officers Fail to Find the Rebel Leader.

for a pair of jade magnelia trees, in gilt, and lapis lazuli jardinieres.

Otto Bernet, as agent, gave $2,800 for a Fel-ts'ul jade incense burner. Its form suggests a pagoda. Each of its form suggests of matrimony, swinging them fatting the key into the locks of the locks of the fitting the key into the l Mexico" Francisco Villa is outwitting Carranza officials and army officers. Half a dozen reports were received in Juarez to-day of Villa's whereabouts, each placing him in a different location and several reporting him surrounded. Official reports were as conflicting as the danger consistently confirmed at Police rot confirmed at Police rot consistently confirmed at Police rot confirmed report the whole country south of Juarez and many miles below Chihuafrom the navy yard. Captain Bennet leasted with bands of Villa pandits, who are locating treats and many discountry from the navy yard. Captain Bennet learned its powers. Mr. Hepburn was bandits, who are locating treats and discountry from the navy yard.

FEARED IN ARIZONA

Representative Eagle, of Texas, a very "dry" man, has been a member of the District of Columbia Committee of the House, and this committee may soon pass on a pending bill to make the House, and this committee of the District dry. Mr. Eagle would, of course, have voted for the bill.

But Mr. Eagle to-night resigned from the District Committee. There has been a considerable pressure for a committee. There has been a man of Mr. Eagle to-night resigned from the District Committee. There has been a considerable pressure for a committee of flood control, and the Democratic considerable pressure for a committee. There has been a considerable pressure for a committee. There has been a considerable pressure for a committee. There has been a man of Mr. Eagle to-night makes threatened to go on the "war path," according to respect to the bill.

But Mr. Eagle to-night resigned from the District Committee of flood control, and the Democratic considerable pressure for a committee of masserpiece. A week against the sevening apparently decided in a Washington newspaper ungon" interests would be more useful on it than on the District Committee. A flood control, and the Democratic course this place for the bill.

But Mr. Eagle to-night resigned from the possible pressure for a committee of nood control, and the Democratic considerable pressure for a committee of the possible pressure fo

WOODS EXPLAINS SUBWAY MYSTERY

Hunting Burglars, Not Bombs, He Declares, in Searching Passengers.

NEW ORDER ISSUED,

cial-Bridges Involved.

Police Commissioner Arthur Woods's official explanation of the subway bomb scare of Saturday night is that he detailed a special squad of patrolmen to watch the entrances and exits in the hope of apprehending crooks who were jam P. Henburn, ex-member of Con- City and place them a expected to commit a series of robcummarizes all the answer the Commissioner made yesterday to numerous day after a long illness.

Death resulted from kidney and heart trouble. Colonel Hepburn was near missioner made yesterday to numerous questions about the police experiment that caused thousands of persons to shun the underground tubes as a field for dynamite notters. for dynamite plotters.

Plenty of mystery still surrounded the episode, however, in the minds of the episode, however, who clund time he lost ground steadily. Besides many precinct officers, who clung reason unknown to us that order was countermanded and the men who were supposed to report at 11 o'clock at the subway stations were informed that they could come at midnight on their why, it's a joke, that's all. For stance, if a United Cigar store safe was to be cracked, as has been intimated, do you suppose the yeggs would carry the goods in a bag so that any book could see it?

"This talk about a thief using the subway is a joke, anyway. In nine out of ten cases the wise crook uses the 'L.' If he is spotted he drops the stuff out of a window or from a platform to the street. God only knows what would happen to a bundle by the time the station is reached and a cop, after running down the stairs, gets back to ning down the stairs, gets back to where it was dropped. A thief can't dithat in the subway."

Bridge Mystery, Too.

Bridge Mystery, Too.

Bridge Mystery, Too.

Canal project in is ing his name passed the House, but in the Senate it was transformed into the the Senate it was transformed into the the provisions of was con-

BUT COUNTERMANDED

Dynamite Plot Called Off After Newspaper Publicity, Says Offi-

firmly to the notion that a bomb scare lay somewhere back of the subway lice official on the West Side said last night. "There was some sort of a bomb scare in connection with the subway. I don't believe the scare is over yet, because I know that another order was issued to night at 6 p. m. ordering out special patrolmen again. For some reason unknown to us that order and the special patrolmen again. For some

In addition to the subway scare conficing explanations yesterday served to add mystery to the stationing of an extra detail of police on the Brooklyn Bridge Sunday when the cruiser Washington came in.

Although Secretary Daniels from the 47

eadquarters or at the Brooklyn Navy Mr. Hepburn was chairma where the former leader is to be found.

Arrivals from interior points to-day report the whole country south of Juarez and many miles below Chil.

They were there to prevent the sailors' which to sweethearts from bombarding the structed.

nder and negotiations were being YANKEES STUPID,

Will "Influence the Reporters." Another Herwarth letter, dated

IFree The Tribune Bureau]
Washington, Feb. 7.—The "Demon Rum" had his grip on the District of Columbia considerably strengthened to day, when one of his most implacable foce in Congress was premoted to a place where he cannot hurt the demon.

Representative Eagle, of Texas, a very "dry" man, has been a member of Rum and Congres and Randers and Randers Brandels, recently named by President Resolutions adopted at the convention and Congress.

Hotel Somerset.

Resolutions adopted at the convention and Fox I hope you and Boy-Ed received all Resolutions adopted at the convention called for worldwide equality for Jews. Copies will be sent to President Wilson and Congress.

Philadelphia, Feb. 7.—Five thought Langhorne and Fox. I hope to und Boy-Ed received all Resolutions adopted at the convention called for worldwide equality for Jews. Copies will be sent to President Wilson and Congress.

Philadelphia, Feb. 7.—Five thought Langhorne and Fox. I hope to nearly letters, which I forwarded to you have copies will be sent to President to Congress and residents in the northeastern portion of Arizona are alarmed over the reports that the Hopi tribe of Navasio Indians have threatened to go A letter from Edward Lyell Fox.

them was each a precautionary measur-taken by Rear Admiral Usher. Mr Daniels showed copies of two setter he received in January, one from a New York resident and the other from a Brooklyn man, calling the Navy be partment's attention to the fact that would be easy to destroy wershow hashing under the bridges by dropning bombs upon them. "I sent the letter Governor Whitman Asks Legislature to Change Present Law. hombs upon them. "I sent the letters to Rear Admiral Usher," said the Sec-

Washington with flowers, fruit and peanuts, Mr. Dunham said.

Washington, Feb. 7.—Placing of ex-ira police guards on the Brooklyn and Manhattan bridges yesterday when the cruiser Washington rassed unde them was explained by Secretary Lan

W. P. HEPBURN

and Served in Many Congresses.

WOULD TAKE POWER FROM STATE BOARD

WANTS FACTORIES

UNDER CITY RULF

Plea Made in Message Reap. DEAD IN IOWA pointing Members of Indus. Was Author of Rate Act

gress from this district, died here to the officials of that the widow, a son and daughter survive him.

"I emigrated from Ohio to Iowa in a steamboat," said William Peters Hep-burn, many years ago, in recounting his early experiences. "Think of it mia canal bills and other legislation relating to travel and transportation. Certainly, it marked him as one of the pioneers of the western part of the Middle West, of which region he was for many years a leading Representa-tive in Congress.

Mr. Hepburn was born at Wellsville.
Columbiana County, Ohio, on November 4, 1833, and was taken by his family to Johnson County, lowa, in where for some years he lived on a

May we send our booklets of

3,000 DRUMMERS LOSE THEIR TRAIN

Far Westerners Forget Orders and Latest Stories to Dine at Astor.

GOVERNOR WHITMAN ONE OF THEIR GUESTS

More than 3,000 travelling salesmen

Brass Dog Kennel Brings $2,600